Committee Break

Thus it was that in the beginning was a Committee. And the Committee was good. The Committee was fruitful and multiplied into many committees. Then sub-committees were formed.

They all met, and met again with the Committee to tell what they had met about, what they did, what they are doing now and what they are going to do.

The next meeting will be to decide on when to meet. Then we'll decide to meet to decide on what to decide to do. Then we'll decide to do what we decided on. If we decide not to do what we have decided to do, we'll meet again to decide on what not to do. If we do what we decided on, we'll then meet again to decide on whether it was right and meet so to do.....

Please remember in your prayers:

Joan Polen, Ruth Coury, Dottie Nohe, Betty Rea, Sarah Taylor, Harry Helmick, Pauline Schaffer, Decker Lee Nolan, Sam Gilmore, Mickey Manzo, Christel Reeves, Bill Dearien, John Armiger, Nina Thorn, Mary Gavin, Fr. John and for all of our ill and homebound parishioners.

+++ Show and Grow Our Faith +++

Parish School of Religion: We are in the Easter season from Easter until Pentecost on May 23. A time of great joy and rejoicing. In today's Gospel Jesus once again stands in the midst of the disciples and says, "Peace be with you!" Two of the most repeated phrases in Scriptures are "Be Not Afraid" and "Peace Be with You!" May your families feel the peace of Christ this week. Weekly Faith Formation notes are emailed to all students enrolled in the Parish School of Religion. If you are not receiving the emails, please contact Arlene Borkowski (amborkowski@citynet.net or 304 (482 -1186). The lesson for the class preparing for First Holy Communion is Session Five: Your First Holy Communion.

St. Michael Women's Study Group: We meet on Friday morning at 9 am. We are using Metanoia with Fr Dave Pivonka. The lesson this week is Jesus Prays. A great series as we prepare for Pentecost. Each session stands alone so come to one or all. The group runs through May 21, Join us in the Church Hall after the 8:15 am Mass. There is also a Zoom call set up, if you would like to join remotely. Call or text Arlene Borkowski with any questions, (304) 482-1186.

"Little Stories with lots of Meanings"

Once all villagers decided to pray for rain. On the day of prayer, all the people gathered, but only one boy came with an umbrella. That is Faith.

When you throw babies in the air, they laugh because they know you will catch them. That is trust.

Every night we go to bed without any assurance of being alive the next morning, but still we set the alarms to wake up. That is hope.

We plan big things for tomorrow in spite of zero knowledge of the future. That is confidence.

We see the world suffering, but still, we get married and have children. That is love.

On an old man's shirt was written a sentence 'I am not 80 yrs old; I am sweet 16 with 64 yrs of experience. That is attitude.

Have a happy day and live your life like these six stories. Remember - Good friends are the rare jewels of life, difficult to find and impossible to replace!!
